

Tendering Your Heart II

Hebrews 4:7

“Today if you hear His voice, Do not harden your hearts.”

Objective: Reverse our sin nature to better enable us to Recognize God’s Voice, Acknowledge His Call on Our Lives and Answer God’s Call.

Three Characters who teach us HOW to Tender our Hearts to God’s Voice:

Moses

1. Moses teaches us _____
2. Moses teaches us _____
3. Moses teaches us _____

Samuel

1. Samuel teaches us to _____
2. Samuel teaches us to
 - a. _____ / _____
 - b. _____

Ananias

1. Ananias teaches us to _____.
2. Notice the account of Adam hiding and Ananias in plain view:

Adam (Genesis 3:8-11)

_____ God’s Voice

___ from God in Fear

“_____ are you?”

God Called _____

Marked by _____

Ananias (Acts 9:10-19)

_____ God’s Voice

_____ God in Fear

“_____ I am, Lord.”

God Called _____

Marked by _____

Tendering Your Heart II

Hebrews 4:7

“Today if you hear His voice, Do not harden your hearts.”

Objective: Reverse our sin nature to better enable us to Recognize God’s Voice, Acknowledge His Call on Our Lives and Answer God’s Call.

Three Characters who teach us HOW to Tender our Hearts to God’s Voice:

Moses

1. Moses teaches us _____
2. Moses teaches us _____
3. Moses teaches us _____

Samuel

1. Samuel teaches us to _____
2. Samuel teaches us to
 - a. _____ / _____
 - b. _____

Ananias

1. Ananias teaches us to _____.
2. Notice the account of Adam hiding and Ananias in plain view:

Adam (Genesis 3:8-11)

_____ God’s Voice

___ from God in Fear

“_____ are you?”

God Called _____

Marked by _____

Ananias (Acts 9:10-19)

_____ God’s Voice

_____ God in Fear

“_____ I am, Lord.”

God Called _____

Marked by _____